From Saul to Paul's mission

Write a short answer, dictate, or talk with a partner.

Name _____

1. Put these events in order. Write 1, 2, 3 or 4 in each box.

- ☐ Ananias welcomes Saul, who receives baptism.
- ☐ Saul opposes the followers of Jesus.
- ☐ Paul travels to share the Good News.
- ☐ Jesus calls Saul on the road to Damascus.

2. Why was Ananias afraid? What did he do?

3. Name a friend who helped Paul. How did that person help?

4. What does Paul's story teach about Jesus' mercy?

Remember: Saul and Paul are two names for the same man. Jesus changed his direction and mission.

Faith becomes love

Paul teaches us to trust Jesus and encourage one another.

Name _____

1. Circle the actions that fit Paul's teaching about love.

Be patient and kind. Make fun of someone who struggles.

Encourage a frightened friend. Demand that others worship you.

Give thanks to God. Decide that no one can ever change.

2. How did Paul encourage the people on the ship?

3. Choose one act of love for this week. What will you do?

4. Who can help you carry out your plan?

Go deeper with an adult: Read 1 Corinthians 13:4-7. Name one quality of love and one everyday action that shows it.

Pray: Jesus, help me keep growing in faith, hope and love. Saint Paul, pray for us. Amen.
